

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE FUND ACT
(No. 9 of 1998)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by sections 15 (6), 20 and 23(2) of the National Health Insurance Fund Act, the Cabinet Secretary for Health, in consultation with the National Health Insurance Fund Board of Management, makes the following Regulations—

THE NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE FUND (CONTRIBUTIONS) REGULATIONS, 2022

PART I—PRELIMINARIES
Citation.	1. These Regulations may be cited as the National Health Insurance Fund (Contributions) Regulations, 2022.
Interpretation.	2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—
	“Act” means the National Health Insurance Fund Act;
	“employer” means a person who is liable to make a contribution under section 15 (2) (c), (d) or (e);
	“enhanced benefits” means the benefits offered over and above the benefits offered under the National cover;
	“special contributor” means a person who is liable to make a contribution under section 15 (2) (b) or (f);
	“standard contributor” means a person on whose behalf a contribution to the Fund is made under section 15(2)(a);
	“unemployed” in relation to a contributor, means a person who is neither employed nor self-employed, at the time the person is liable to the Fund as a contributor; and
	“voluntary contributor” means a person who is liable to make a contribution to the Fund under section 20.
PART II—STANDARD CONTRIBUTIONS
Minimum income of standard contributor.	3. A standard contributor whose total gross salary for the immediately preceding month is less than three thousand shillings shall not be liable to contribute to the Fund.
Rate of standard contribution.	4. The rate of a standard contribution for the range of the total gross salary of a standard contributor shall be as specified in the Schedule.

Remission of standard contribution.	5. (1) An employer shall remit the amount deducted as a standard contribution to the Fund on or before the ninth day of the month immediately following the month when income was earned by the standard contributor.
	(2) An employer shall remit a standard contribution to the Fund in the manner notified to the employer by the Board.
Employment of a special or voluntary contributor.	6. (1) Where a special or voluntary contributor is employed, the employer shall notify the Fund within thirty days thereof.
	(2) A special or voluntary contributor who has been employed shall become liable to the Fund as a standard contributor.
PART III—MATCHING CONTRIBUTIONS
Rate of matching contribution.	7. The rate of a matching contribution for the range of the total gross salary of a standard contributor shall be as specified in the Schedule.
Remission of matching contribution.	8. A employer shall remit a matching contribution within the time and in the manner that a standard contribution is remitted under regulation 5.
Unlawful deduction as matching contribution.	9. (1) An employer who deducts the amount due as a matching contribution from the salary of a standard contributor commits an offence.
	(2) Despite sub-regulation (1), an employer who deducts the amount due as a matching contribution from the salary of a standard contributor shall—
	(a) refund the amount deducted to the standard contributor; and
	(b) be liable to pay a penalty equal to ten percent of the amount deducted.
Termination of employment of a standard contributor.	10. (1) Where an employer terminates the employment of a standard contributor, the employer shall notify the Fund within thirty days thereof.
	(2) The obligations of an employer in relation to a standard contributor whose services have been terminated shall cease immediately the Fund receives the notification referred to in sub-regulation (1).
PART IV—VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS

Unemployed person as voluntary contributor.	11. An unemployed person shall be eligible as a voluntary contributor if the person—
